Wild Game Dinner

Well fall is just around the corner and for me and many other members that means one thing HUNTING season. I would like to thank all the members that helped or donated wild game to the dinner. Last year it was a huge success and with your help and donations this year can be even better. Again this year if you bring out wild game to donate please enter it in the notebook behind the bar. If you are unable to bring the wild game to the club or need help with it please give me a call Randy at 734-755-3331. One more thing for those wishing to be on the wild game committee there will be at meeting on Dec 15th at 7:00pm at the club. Thank you to all and good hunting. Please support your Club.
