

MONROE COUNTY ROD & GUN CLUB
January – February - March
2010 BULLET

Hi Ladies,

We are at the end of a productive year and ready to start our new year with a bang! Last year we had several dinners and dances that helped improve our club. This year we are planning monthly Sunday dinners and having a live band dance to help buy new windows for the main clubhouse. Everyone including members and non members are welcome to come join us. Its time to be active and support your club. Remember the rewards are not only seen in the building, but in the fun and friendships that comes from getting involved. We need your help and your club needs your support. So please come and join us.

Website

Have you visited the club website lately? It is a great source of information about your club and the activities that help keep our doors open and our dues down. Want to know if a date is open to rent the club? Check out the Club Calendar page. Need to email an officer or director? Check out the Club Officer’s page for links to email. Other items of interest are Sunday Worker’s Calendar, Rifle Range information on upcoming shoots and range closures, Trap/Skeet and Archery League scores and standings, and more. Go to www.mcrgc.org and check it out, go back often to stay abreast of updates.

If you have a recent hunting success you can post a photo on our Brag page or view recent photos from a party on the Photo Album page. The website is a valuable asset of the club but only if you use it. This includes providing the content. If you are part of a committee with an upcoming event please get the information to me to have it posted. If your group or committee has a page on the website please check it often to make sure it is up to date. If you would like to see something new on the site please let me know. The website is a way of keeping informed between quarterly newsletters since it is usually updated weekly or as necessary. It is a way of providing feedback to the club if you can’t make a meeting. All questions, concerns or complaints put on the site are shared with the Officers and Directors as soon as it is received. Don’t let our website dry up. If you have information that needs to go out to the membership please get it to me to post.

We also have over 250 members and non-members who have signed up to receive the Bullet and other notices of club activities via email. I try to send out emails on club activities about a week before the event if not sooner. If you have information on a club event you want emailed please let me know as soon as possible.
